

The Center for International Studies is pleased to present the winter quarter

Graduate Student Research Panel

moderated by Dr. Tom Smucker, Director of International Development Studies, and featuring

Hsin-ning Chang

Southeast Asian Studies

Imagining "Us" and "Others" in Kuala Lumpur through the works of Amir Muhammad

Aggrey Otieno

Communication and Development Studies

Telemedicine in action: Reducing maternal & neonatal mortality through communication approaches in Korogocho, Nairobi- Kenya

Carolina Proaño-Castro

Communication and Development Studies

Integrating Participation and Culture in a Global Health Intervention to control Chagas Disease: Cross cultural and multidisciplinary efforts, challenges and lessons learned

Friday, March 4—3:00 PM
Walter Hall, Room 145

